11. Privacy Collection Statement

Bolsta Foundation (ABN 75 641 134 974) is a not-for-profit organisation that partners with other Australian Not-for-Profit organisations to conduct raffles, art unions, or lotteries under Australian state and territory charitable gaming laws.

The Foundation respects each individual it deals with and this extends to respecting and protecting personal information. To the extent that the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (Privacy Act), and the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) governs the way in which the Foundation must manage personal information, the purpose of this statement is to advise you that by entering the competition, you consent to the Foundation collecting, using and disclosing, in accordance with the Foundation's privacy policy, various personal information about you, including your name, address, phone number, and email address.

Personal information may be entered directly by an authorised ticket seller using the Bolsta Raffles app or entered independently into the ticket purchasing web site provided by Bolsta Raffles.

This collection is for the purposes of conducting the competition, locating, verifying, and publishing prize winners, facilitating the Foundation's internal business operations, including internal record keeping and the fulfilment of any legal requirements under charitable gaming laws, analysing the Foundation's goods and services and customer needs with a view to developing new or improved goods and services, providing you with information about the Foundation and the goods and services that the Foundation, or its related entities or organisations that the Foundation has affiliations with, offer that may be of interest to you, and any purpose directly related to any of the above.

If you do not provide the personal information requested, or if the personal information you provide to us is incomplete or inaccurate, the Foundation may not be able to process your entry into the competition or to contact/locate you for delivery of the prize, and the Foundation may be unable to provide you with the information you are seeking.

In order to provide goods and services to you, the Foundation may from time to time disclose your personal information to its employees, contractors, and related and affiliated entities for the purpose of providing its services, operating the Foundation's business, and fulfilling your requests, service providers who assist the Foundation in operating its business (including cloud data storage suppliers, IT suppliers, mail distribution service suppliers, marketing service providers, market research companies, or professional advisors such as lawyers, accountants, and auditors), and any other entity as required or authorised by law (including law enforcement bodies, relevant authorities, and charitable sector or gaming regulators).

The Foundation is not likely to disclose your personal information to overseas recipients, except as permitted by the Privacy Act.

More detailed information about the way the Foundation uses, discloses and secures your personal information, how you can access and correct that information, and how you can make a complaint about a breach of the APPs can be found in our privacy policy, available by contacting the Foundation at:

- i. Email address: admin@bolstafoundation.org
- ii. Website: www.bolstafoundation.org

12. Allocation to Participating Organisations

The Foundation will pay participating Not-for-profit organisations an allocation of 60% of the total proceeds of ticket sales assigned to their organisation. The balance of funds raised from ticket sales will be paid to the Foundation to be applied towards the cost of prizes, transaction fees, access to digital platforms, reasonable expenses for promoting the Raffle and related administrative costs.

If for any reason a participating organisation is be found during the competition period to not meet the necessary obligations to retain their status as a not-for-profit with a valid ABN the Foundation reserves the right to retain that organisation's allocation of ticket sales for use for a purpose that is in accordance with the Foundation's constitution or articles of association.
